

Introduction

The system was developed to create a centralized database that contains information related to disability research (consisting of Abstract, Fulltext, Report, Unpublished, Guideline and Journal)

The system functions as below:

1. Provide access to web-based system
2. Provide function to input information on disability research
3. Provide a search function in a centralized database
4. Provide update function of the record
5. Generation of reports and statistics